SOMMELIER WINE AWARDS

The Sommelier Wine Awards is a wine competition focused entirely on wines aimed at the on-trade. Since it started in 2007 it has grown to become the key competition for wines trying to increase their presence in hotels, bars and restaurants, as well as the first point of reference for the UK's on-trade wine buyers.

Only three German wines received a gold medal, two of them from our portfolio at Wineconsale GmbH. Your source to fine German wines. But that's not all, the coveted "CRITICS CHOICE" award for Germany and Austria was given to Axel Pauly and his "Generation" Riesling.

Surprisingly enough, our BINZ+BRATT blend of Pinot Noir and Cabernet Sauvignon received a great silver medal. One more sign for the excellence of our range.

Please see comments of judges below.

Pauly Generations Riesling Feinherb, 2010, Mosel, Germany

Fantastic to see Axel Pauly, this rising star of the German wine world scoop not only Gold but a Critics' Choice award. Refreshing and balanced, this marries the minerality of some of the Mosel's steepest slate slopes with pure stone fruit from a low yielding year. Fresh and understated, the apples, zingy acidity and mineral and citrus flavours come together beautifully with what River Cafe's Emily O'Hare calls a 'tickle of sweetness'.

Dreissigacker Bechtheimer Riesling, 2010, Rheinhessen, Germany

Beauty and the balance won Dreissigacker Gold. 'Light straw in colour, this has a warm, ripe fruity nose, sweet mid-palate, good body and lingering finish,' said Nick Chiu, Anderida at Ashdown Park. 'Rich and honeyed, with complex mineral flavours alongside the tropical fruit, this is effortless with beautiful balance,' said consultant Natasha Hughes. Great with calamari, Chinese stir fry or Asian crab dishes.

Binz + Bratt Pinot Noir/Cabernet Sauvignon, 2008, Pfalz, Germany

Pale and delicate Pinot character to the fore, with fresh crunchy redcurrants, raspberry leaf and a touch of minerality on the palate. A lighter style of German red with soft tannins and a marshmallow-creamy finish.

Schloss Vollrads Riesling Kabinett Feinherb, 2010, Rheingau, Germany

'With apples, lemons and flowers on the nose, this is off-dry with pleasing apple and lemon flavours, fresh acidity and good length,' said consultant Peter McCombie MW.

Schloss Vollrads Riesling Erstes Gewächs, 2006, Rheingau, Germany

Polished and poised, a complex nose shows kerosene development, alongside tropical notes, quince and flowers, while the palate shows fine texture, minerals, and a trace of residual sugar on a good finish. Nick Chiu, Anderida at Ashdown Park, remarked that this wine was a 'mere youth' and there was more to come.
