

In this issue you can find the following topics:

- KAITUI Regional Champion at Prague Wine Trophy
- Pauly second grape in Gault Millau
- Axel Pauly & Jochen Dreissigacker voted among the 111 top young wine makers in Germany
- Ludi Neiss opens new wine production facility

We wish everybody a prosperous, healthy and happy new year 2014.

Here are some news to get started.

KAITUI Regional Champion

The Sauvignon Blanc from Markus Schneider (KAITUI, what means Schneider in Maori) achieved an excellent result at the 2013 Prague Wine Trophy. The wine received Gold and became Regional Champion in his category. Among all Sauvignons entered from all regions of this world (170 entries), Kaitui got second place behind a wine from the homeland of SB, from Marlborough NZ.

We believe this is a great success and underlines why Sauvignong Blanc enjoys growing popularity among German wine makers.

See here

AXEL PAULY

In the 2013 edition of the GAULT MILLAU, Axel Pauly received his first grape in the reknowned German Wine Guide. And now, in the 2014 edition, he received his second grape. This is excellent news for Axel as it proves and reflects the efforts he takes during his work in the vineyard and winery. It also shows that a clean and fresh style of Mosel Riesling can be very successful.

See here

DREISSIGACKER & PAULY

Both, Jochen Dreissigacker and Axel Pauly were voted among the top 111 young winemakers in Germany. This is the new generation which has a great future.

See here

LUDI NEISS

Just right in time to receive the new vintage, the wine estate Ludi Neiss finished a new production facility. The new hall is state of the art and offers many opportunities for a further development of this excellent wine estate.

“It is a step to even better qualities, but much more important is the improvement for those who work there, comments Axel Neiss.”

See pictures here

Sincerely Yours